On October 29, 2014, Amanda L. An entitlement hearing was held on January 24 and 25, 2019, in Washington D.C. ECF

¹ Although this Decision has been formally designated "unpublished," it will nevertheless be posted on the Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. S.R., ECF No. 50.

No. 79. I issued a ruling on entitlement, finding that petitioner was entitled to compensation. See Ruling on Entitlement, ECF No. 90.

On October 29, 2014, Amanda Isaacson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10, et seq. (the “Vaccine Act”), alleging that an influenza (“flu”) vaccination she received on November 3, 2011, caused her to develop glomerulonephritis. Petition at 1-2. On November 25, 2020, Special Master Roth issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation for her glomerulonephritis.¹ ECF No. 90.

Respondent proffers that, based on the evidence of record, petitioner, Amanda L. Isaacson, should be awarded $198,659.42, which amount represents $12,248.68 in compensation for projected life care expenses; $20,585.32 in lost earnings; $153,497.69 in actual and projected pain and suffering, and $12,327.73 for past unreimbursable expenses.² This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below, and request that the Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:³

A lump sum payment of $198,659.42 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Amanda L. Isaacson.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIAN M. BOYNTON
Acting Assistant Attorney General

C. SALVATORE D'ALESSIO
Acting Director
Torts Branch, Civil Division

HEATHER L. PEARLMAN
Acting Deputy Director
Torts Branch, Civil Division

ALEXIS B. BABCOCK
Assistant Director
Torts Branch, Civil Division

² This amount reflects that any award for projected life care expenses, lost future earnings, or projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(f)(4)(A).

³ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
